Dear Senator,

We are writing because we strongly oppose the amendment introduced by Senator DeMint to repeal the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform Act. This repeal has been advanced as Amendment #394 to S. 782, and also as a stand-alone bill, S. 712.

The 2008 financial crisis was the most devastating economic event since the Great Depression. The Pew Economic Policy Group has estimated the losses to the U.S. economy created by the crisis at $10 trillion in wealth and 5.5 million jobs lost. With housing prices continuing to fall and unemployment remaining above 9 percent, millions of American families continue to suffer the economic fallout from the financial crisis every day.

The Financial Crisis Inquiry Commission, as well as numerous bipartisan observers, have confirmed that this crisis was directly traceable to gaps and failures in regulatory oversight that permitted enormously reckless and dangerous behavior by the financial industry. The Dodd-Frank Act takes fundamentally important steps to close those gaps and change the status quo. To repeal it would leave the nation with the same failed system of financial regulation that led to the disastrous events of 2008.

According to Gallup polling, over 60 percent of American voters approved of the passage of the Dodd-Frank Act, and it was the most popular major legislative initiative of the past two years. Today, two-thirds of Americans believe the Federal Government has not been tough enough with Wall Street. To repeal the Dodd-Frank Act would be taking the side of the Wall Street banks that caused the crisis, and betraying the voters who entrusted Congress with the responsibility of addressing our nation's economic problems.

Repealing Dodd-Frank is a profoundly misguided response to the political and regulatory failure which led to the financial and economic crisis. Instead, we must move forward with the work of insisting on accountability and transparency for Wall Street and the entire financial system so that we will never again face a financial and economic disaster of the magnitude of the 2008 collapse.

Sincerely,

Americans for Financial Reform
