

July 11, 2016

Dear Representative,

On behalf of Americans for Financial Reform, we are writing to express our support for the “U.S. Territories Investor Protection Act of 2016”.¹ This legislation will close an egregious, decades-old loophole that exempted companies in Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and any other United States territory from the Investment Company Act of 1940 – a loophole that denied residents the basic investor protections afforded to residents of the mainland United States.

This loophole in the Investment Company Act has allowed for staggering conflicts of interest that would be illegal in the mainland United States; closing it is long overdue. News reports show that UBS AG exploited this exemption to steer Puerto Rico bonds underwrote by the firm into mutual funds also operated by the firm.² In 2008, UBS underwrote a bond issuance for a pension fund it was also advising, and then invested half of the bonds into UBS mutual funds sold only to residents of Puerto Rico.³

All Americans deserve the basic investor protections afforded by the Investment Company Act, whether they live on the mainland United States or in a U.S. territory. Passing the U.S. Territories Investor Protection Act will allow American investors of all kinds and in all geographies to invest with greater confidence. This commonsense legislation unanimously passed the House Financial Services Committee 59 to 0. We urge you to support it.

Thank you for your consideration. For more information please contact AFR’s Senior Policy Analyst, Alexis Goldstein at alexis@ourfinancialsecurity.org.

Sincerely,

Americans for Financial Reform
