

REGULATING WALL STREET – TEN YEARS LATER

Ten Years after the 2008 Financial Crisis, Where Do We Stand?

Tuesday July 24th, 9:00 AM – 12:30 PM
Senate Hart Office Building, Room 902

AGENDA

9:00 to 9:10: Introduction to event and of Senator Brown by AFR Executive Director Lisa Donner

9:10 to 9:30: Keynote speech by Senate Banking Committee Ranking Member Senator Sherrod Brown

9:30 to 10:10: In conversation with former FDIC Chair Sheila Bair on the financial crisis experience and its lessons for policy and politics today

10:15 to 11:00: In conversation with former FDIC Vice-Chair Thomas Hoenig and George Washington University Professor of Law Art Wilmarth on banking and Wall Street capital markets, from the historical roots of the crisis to today's debates over bank regulation

11:00 – 11:45: In conversation with former Treasury official and current Dean of the Gerald Ford School of Public Policy Michael Barr and former Treasury Department Deputy Secretary Sarah Bloom Raskin: the adequacy of the post-crisis regulatory response and our situation today

11:45-12:00: Speech by Senator Elizabeth Warren

12:00-12:30: In conversation with SEC Commissioner Robert Jackson on the future of capital markets regulation and the lessons learned in the financial crisis