

AFR Americans for Financial Reform

Education Fund

SAVE THE DATE – JULY 24th, 2018

REGULATING WALL STREET – TEN YEARS LATER

Ten Years After the 2008 Financial Crisis, Where Do We Stand?

Tuesday July 24th, 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM
Senate Hart Office Building, Room 902

RSVP Here

FEATURING

Keynote address by SENATOR SHERROD BROWN, Ranking Member of the Senate Banking Committee

SHEILA BAIR, Former Chair of the Federal Deposit Insurance Commission, on her regulatory experience during the 2008 crisis and the lessons it holds for today

MICHAEL BARR, Former Treasury official and Dean of the Gerald Ford Public Policy School at the University of Michigan, on the design of the Dodd-Frank Act

SARAH BLOOM RASKIN, Former Deputy Secretary of the Treasury and Federal Reserve Governor, on post-crisis reforms

THOMAS HOENIG, former President of the Kansas City Federal Reserve and Vice-Chair of the FDIC, on Wall Street and the banking system

ROBERT JACKSON, current Commissioner at the Securities and Exchange Commission, on the agenda for capital markets regulation in light of the crisis

ART WILMARTH, Professor of Law at George Washington University, on the historical roots of the financial crisis

...and other participants to be named!

RSVP Here