

Spring 2022 Paid Internships

Americans for Financial Reform Education Fund (AFR Ed Fund) is seeking spring interns to help us lead the fight for financial justice. Please note that, due to the COVID-19 emergency, this might be a telework internship, as AFR Ed Fund will continue to take all precautionary measures to protect the health of its staff and the public.

Through policy analysis, education, and outreach to our members and others, AFR Ed Fund builds public engagement for substantial financial reform, including:

- Fair rules of the road for consumers and a strong, effective Consumer Financial Protection Bureau to set basic safety standards and protect families.
- A banking system that helps people buy and stay in their homes and invests in communities and businesses to create good jobs and strong neighborhoods.
- An end to megabank bailouts and financial institutions that are “too big to fail.”
- Meaningful limits on the political influence of the financial sector.

AFR Ed Fund is part of an unprecedented coalition of more than 200 national, state and local groups who have come together to reform the financial industry. The coalition includes consumer, civil rights, investor, retiree, community, labor, faith based and business groups—a full list of coalition members is available here. For more about AFR Ed Fund and its work, see the video with Senator Elizabeth Warren posted at defenddoddfrank.org and check out the Stop the Debt Trap campaign at stopthedebttrap.org.

Internships available during the spring 2022 semester:

- Communications: The communications intern will work with AFR Ed Fund communications director to support press and media strategies that lift up our campaigns fighting for a more just and stable economy, as well as for protecting consumers against Wall Street financial scams and discrimination.

Responsibilities:

Responsibilities will vary according to the particular internship, but generally would include:

- Maintaining lists and collections of press clips;
- Help writing, maintaining, and circulating relevant campaign or communications materials;
- Listening and clipping videos of relevant hearings for sharing on AFR lists and social media;
- Researching and potentially writing blog posts;

- Help promoting AFR Ed Fund’s message by contributing to and implementing communications, new media and outreach plans;
- Supporting field and lobbying advocacy campaigns;
- Potentially help organizing and staffing congressional hearings, briefings, press conferences, coalition meetings, petition deliveries, or other events.

Qualifications:

Ideal candidates should have a strong commitment to economic justice, racial justice, and social justice. They should have excellent written and oral communication skills; high proficiency with general office software (Microsoft Word, Excel, Paint and PowerPoint preferred); and knowledge and experience with website maintenance, blogging, design, and social networks. We are also looking for someone who is detail oriented, has solid judgement and good relationship-building skills.

Compensation:

During the spring, AFR Ed Fund offers a compensation of $15/hour, together with stimulating, soul-satisfying work and a crash course in public-interest advocacy, financial regulation, communications, and coalition building. Academic credit is available as well.

Covid Location Adjustment:

Due to COVID-19, this will be a telework internship, and meetings and orientation will take place via Zoom or other teleconference apps.

To apply:

Please send a resume, a cover letter, a brief writing sample, and three references to internships@ourfinancialsecurity.org. Please specify in your email the specific internship (Communications, Campaigns) to which you are applying.
